FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

November Roundtables from World Trade Center Harrisburg

York, PA, November 5, 2015: World Trade Center Harrisburg will be hosting two roundtable programs in November.

On Thursday, November 12, we will be hosting an informal discussion on "Strategies for Dealing with a Strong US Dollar", which will be held in Wyomissing, PA. This is an opportunity for companies to share their strategies on how they are dealing with a strong dollar and to learn how other small and medium-sized businesses are responding to the situation. Companies are welcome to share experiences, or simply listen and learn. The roundtable will be led by Mr. Matt Blyth, Fulton International Group, Mr. Kirk Elken, Securitas Global Risk Solutions, and Mr. Timothy Dietrich, Esquire, Barley Snyder.

On Tuesday, November 24, we will be bringing Ms. Michelle Stover, Harrisburg Port Director, and her team from the US Customs and Border Protection office. "Meet Your Local Customs Officials" will be held in Harrisburg, PA. Ms. Stover will tell what is currently going on at the Port of Harrisburg and will discuss opportunities for freight movement through Harrisburg, customs clearance, among other things.

Both events are part of World Trade Center Harrisburg's global trade topic roundtable series, which provides a forum for companies to discuss global issues and trends that affect every company.

Roundtable programs are free for WTC Members and $15 for Non-Members.
