Profile...

Maple Logistics is a 3rd party warehousing and fulfillment center that was founded in 1977. Due to significant growth, the company expanded to three state-of-the-art locations encompassing nearly 500,000 ft² of space. In addition to offering a variety of value-added services, one area that has seen significant growth is their import and export business through the eastern ports. Whether your needs are storage, distribution, or providing an inbound and outbound consolidation point, Maple Logistics can help to improve your international trade process. Their northeastern US location is in close proximity to many ports, and their consolidation services save customers money on outbound international shipments.
