SERVING CENTRAL PENNSYLVANIA

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

World Trade Center Harrisburg Promotes Hannah Copenheaver to Manager of Outreach and Communications

York, PA, August 17, 2015:

World Trade Center Harrisburg announced today the promotion of Hannah Copenheaver to Manager of Outreach and Communications. She will be responsible for PR and marketing, as well as fostering relationships with stakeholders and partner organizations. Ms. Copenheaver will continue to maintain relationships with the organization's members and clients active in international trade.

Ms. Copenheaver joined the organization in January 2013 as an intern and was hired as Trade Specialist in May 2013. Ms. Copenheaver has a Bachelor's Degree from York College of Pennsylvania and recently received her Master's Degree from American University's School of International Service in Washington D.C. She also serves on the board of York Young Professionals, is active in York College's Young Alumni, and volunteers for several local non-profit organizations in her spare time.

World Trade Center Harrisburg serves companies in central Pennsylvania by promoting global trade and delivering relevant educational programs, up-to-date trade information, practical trade assistance, and research & referral services for members and clients to help them compete and prosper in a global economy. World Trade Center Harrisburg is a licensed member of the World Trade Centers Association and the regional coordinator for Pennsylvania's free export assistance services.
